Reading Comprehension Quiz

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. According to the text, how can someone create their own luck?
   - ◯ A. By relying on random opportunities
   - ◯ B. By preparing their mind and being sensitive to missed chances
   - ◯ C. By waiting for others to create opportunities for them
   - ◯ D. By avoiding hard work and persistence

2. True or False: The text suggests that being a trusted and reliable person can lead to opportunities coming your way.
   - ☐ True ☐ False

3. What quality does the text suggest is important for spotting opportunities that others miss?
   - ◯ A. A strong sense of humor
   - ◯ B. High levels of skill in a specific field
   - ◯ C. Being indecisive
   - ◯ D. Avoiding risks

4. True or False: The text argues that luck is always a random occurrence.
   - ☐ True ☐ False

5. What example does the text use to illustrate creating your own luck?

- ◯ A. Winning the lottery
- ◯ B. A diver being approached by treasure hunters for their skills
- ◯ C. A businessperson inheriting a company
- ◯ D. A random discovery of gold in a backyard

6. How does the text describe 'luck through persistence'?

- ◯ A. Waiting for the perfect moment
- ◯ B. Generating energy and creating opportunities through hard work
- ◯ C. Depending on others for success
- ◯ D. Focusing on short-term gains only

7. True or False: According to the text, Warren Buffett is a good example of someone who benefits from a strong reputation.

☐ True ☐ False

8. What does the text suggest about the connection between skill and luck?

- ◯ A. Skill and luck are completely unrelated
- ◯ B. With enough skill, luck can appear to be destiny
- ◯ C. Luck is more important than skill
- ◯ D. Luck replaces the need for skill

9. True or False: Building business relationships in advance is described as unimportant in the text.

☐ True ☐ False

ReadCheck

Made with ReadCheck

Answer Key

Q#	Answer	Explanation
1	B	The text emphasizes that creating your own luck involves preparing your mind and being aware of opportunities that others may overlook.
2	True	The text states that if you are trusted, reliable, and have integrity, others will approach you with opportunities because of your reputation.
3	B	The text explains that being highly skilled in a field helps individuals notice lucky breaks or opportunities that others may not see.
4	False	The text explains that luck can become deterministic when one is well-prepared, skilled, and actively creating opportunities.
5	B	The text uses the example of a skilled diver being approached by treasure hunters to show how creating expertise can lead to opportunities.
6	B	The text describes 'luck through persistence' as the result of hard work, hustle, and actively stirring up opportunities.
7	True	The text mentions that Warren Buffett receives business deals because of his reputation, integrity, and trustworthiness.
8	B	The text suggests that as someone becomes highly skilled, they can recognize opportunities so effectively that what seems like luck becomes predictable, almost like destiny.
9	False	The text emphasizes the importance of building business relationships well in advance to take advantage of future opportunities.
10	B	The text highlights that being a trusted, high-integrity individual helps attract opportunities and makes others want to work with you.

Made with ReadCheck - Scan QR code to create your own!